Introduction

WE WELCOME YOU TO THE DOBRA TEA-ROOM, PURVEYOR OF THE TRULY FINE TEAS.

This registered tradename has already become a guarantee of the highest quality of the tea served on our premises or sold by weight in a range of different original boxes. This superb quality is ensured by two simple but fundamental rules:

- the freshness of the tea is guaranteed by the Company of Tea-Devotees, which imports it directly from tea gardens all over the world,*
- the preparation, serving and sale of tea in the Dobra Tea-room is in the hands of journeymen tea-devotees who are highly knowledgeable in the science of tea and skilled in a variety of special tea techniques, tricks of the trade and mysteries.*

Our way of serving tea is inspired by the traditions of the Orient. And as these vary so much, here is a little guide to the basic principles which the Dobra Tea-room observes:

- unless otherwise stated, teas which are fully fermented, scented and flavoured, such as representative examples of half green and green teas are served in teapots  contain a minimum of 3-5dl.*
- teas of more than one pouring, unless otherwise stated, are served in different teapots identified by the symbol e or a and contain a minimum of 3-5dl.*

A solitary tea-drinker is traditionally served with a cup of the type "Gai Wan"  or with the set "Kyoto"  which holds 1.5dl. as we are pleased to recommend.

Repetition of a symbol indicates the number of pouring we recommend.

White & Yellow Teas

Yellow teas

Either it is defined as technologically different (concretely slightly fermented), or the most carefully selected sorts of tea from every province given as a gift (or better probably a tribute) to the Emperor's court (yellow is the Emperor's colour). Without refuting the first definition, with our knowledge of Chinese tea gardens and little stores, we prefer the "Emperors" definition. The following teas are perfect examples.

HUANG YA

China Sichuan

Yellow Tips from the Meng Ding Mountain

The father of tea-growing, the monk Wu Li Zhen, oversees the quality of this legendary tea from his misty pedestal in the monastery on the slopes of Meng Mountain. It was in front of his statue that the last doubts vanished during the expedition of the Company of Tea Devotees to faraway Sichuan.

Green Teas

MATCHA KYOTO

Japan Uji

This is a first-class type of powdered extra-fine ground tea. Matcha is used at what is known as the Japanese tea ceremony during which the tea is whisked with a bamboo rod called a chasen in an original bowl called a chawan. Quality Matcha is always a pea-green extra-fine powder with a distinctive grassy aroma. The foamy infusion is a fresh green, with an unforgettable, very intense taste. We recommend that it be enjoyed after dessert or a Japanese sweet, but never on an empty stomach.

CZK85,-

GYOKURO KYOTO

Japan Uji

An excellent, very distinguished Japanese green tea. Its delicious taste and fresh grassy scent of Spring offers a touch of heaven in your cup. This tea is one of the most valued products of the Nippon Empire. It is picked by hand in specially shaded fields and guarantees a rare experience, enhanced by an original method of preparation. Dark green flat subtle leaves of uniform side, a fresh grassy aroma and a gourmet taste. The Gyokuro type of tea is much prized for the characteristically strong taste that is especially pronounced when it is very carefully brewed in miniature infusion bowls. It is usual to make three infusions from the same leaves, allowing the sovereign quality of this tea to be enjoyed to the full.

Black Teas

DARJEELING FIRST FLUSH

India

In the harsh mountain climate of the Himalayas, in the Darjeeling area, the first Spring tea harvest takes place from March to the end of April and is called the First Flush. The tea produced from this harvest is valued particularly for its flowery aroma, but since this rapidly diminishes with weeks and months of storage, it is very important that the tea be fresh. We buy for the Dobra Tea-room on the Calcutta tea market and transport the tea by air. This means that we can guarantee the freshness of the tea in your cup. It will be on the menu only while the fresh stock lasts.

CZK 110,-

DARJEELING SECOND FLUSH

India

The second tea harvest takes place just before the rainy season, over almost fifty days from the end of May. The flavour and superb muscat aroma of the teas picked at this time has led to comparison between these teas and the famous wines of Bordeaux. Rather small green-yellow leaves with an admixture of darker tips. On the menu only while present stocks last.

CZK 100,-

DARJEELING AUTUMNAL

India

After Darjeeling First Flush and Second Flush brings late Himalayan summer third brand harvest during the year: after summer monsoons are tea bushes smoothed with a more vivid cut, and on the sunny days they are thawing fresh tips not similar to those of the first spring harvest. Fine scent and flavor experts are referred to as "First Flush with a drop of honey".

CZK 100,-

NEPAL ILAM

Nepal

On the southern slopes of the majestic Himalayas, virtually „just over the hill“ from the famous Darjeeling, enterprising Nepalese planters have managed even without British colonial experience to bring a full- value high-mountain black tea into the light of the tea world. The brown-green uniformly rolled leaves with a high content of silver tips are full of aroma and the taste is unobtrusively astringent taste.

Black Teas

RIZE CAY

Turkey

Although tea has only been grown in North Turkey on the foothills of the Pontic Mountains recently (the first plantation here was founded during the Second World War, this Turkish tea has acquired its own unique identity and great popularity. It is excellent for drinking while smoking a water-pipe. A red, strongly aromatic, finely ground tea. If the traditional method of preparation is observed, then this tea produces a dark red-brown infusion in the glass, with a mildly sweet taste and captivating properties. It is served in a Turkish pot with a glass. This tea is taken with sugar.

CZK 85,-

ASSAM BRAHMAPUTRA

India

An Indian black tea from the valley plantation region on the banks of the magic river Brahmaputra. The tea was discovered by the Bruce brothers almost 170 years ago. It was cultivated from a wild variety of tea-plant later named Thea Assamica. In the cup they produce a dark red-brown infusion with a rich aroma and robust taste. Suitable for drinking before a long journey.

Chilled Drinks

STAROBORSHOV®

An excellent iced cocktail skilfully prepared in a shaker from Oolong team ice and sugar syrup. It is a delicious drink with unusually refreshing effects. This is because the half-green tea contains an abundance of what are known as saponins, and in the shaker these produce a foam indistinguishable from the famous "head" on a dewy half-litre of beer. This seductive appearance will undoubtedly attract the attention of many in the tea-drinking community. The drink is a rarity that we were taught by the renowned master Takada, a Japanese planter from Kyoto, and it was then christened by Potápník. (2.5-3,0 dl)

Oriental Lounge

In the magical world of the Orient, the drinking of tea is inseparably linked to the smoking of aromatic tobacco through a bubbling water pipe. This is not smoking in the usual sense, but a ritual for calming all the senses.

This is why we have created a saloon for this ritual purpose - a saloon where imagination, together with the real impressions of taste, scent and sound allows you to forget the rat race and all its accompanying woes.

SHISHA

The water pipe, a magical instrument through which you can smoke strong, intoxicatingly perfumed tobacco, steeped in honey, strawberries, apples etc.
